	Administration of Medication By Means Other Than Mouth

(See 4009 Administration of Medication by Means Other Than By Mouth Procedure)

The John McGivney Children's Centre School Authority (JMCCSA) recognizes that the administration of medications by means other than by mouth (i.e., insulin) is the responsibility of appropriate medical personnel.

In such situations where medication must be administered by means other than mouth, the parents/guardian shall contact their physician to initiate a referral to Community Care Access Centre.
